AMARILLO, TEXAS
Housing & Help for a Homeless Mother and Child

A practical resource guide • October 26, 2026 • Amarillo / Potter and Randall counties

Start here: Call Martha's Home (806-372-4035) and The Salvation Army (806-373-6631) to ask about emergency space for a mother and her child. Call 2-1-1 for additional shelter referrals. No bed availability has been confirmed.

1 Emergency shelter: call today

Martha's Home

1204 SW 18th Ave • 806-372-4035
Temporary residential shelter for women, including mothers with dependent children. Ask for a mother-and-child opening, intake rules and alternate placement if full.

The Salvation Army of Amarillo

400 S Harrison St • 806-373-6631
Emergency shelter, including family accommodation, plus food and basic needs. Ask if both mother and child can stay together tonight.

Faith City Mission

600 N Tyler St • 806-373-6402
Listed by Amarillo ISD as a temporary shelter resource for families. Confirm family eligibility and intake.

Transformation Park / The HUB

601 S Travis St (resource hub); 1501 SW 5th Ave (shelter campus) • 806-378-9009, option 2
Meals, resource navigation and homelessness services. Ask for family-specific shelter referrals. Family Village expansion is planned, not confirmed as open.

Family Support Services: if fleeing abuse

24-hour crisis line: 806-374-5433
Confidential emergency safe-house and advocacy services for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault or trafficking, including parents with children. Call first for safe intake directions.

2 Transitional housing for mothers and children

Buckner Family Place

1615 S Tyler St • 806-373-3422
Single-parent housing with case management for parents pursuing education or vocational training. Ask about openings, program requirements and whether the child's age is eligible.

Downtown Women's Center

409 S Monroe St • 806-372-3625
Structured transitional/recovery housing, including programs serving women with children. Ask about Haven House Too and Gratitude House; some programs have sobriety/recovery requirements.

Eveline's Sunshine Cottage

806-803-9357 (local directory listing; verify)
Housing program listed for eligible single mothers working toward a college degree. Ask if the program is currently accepting applications.

3 Longer-term affordable housing

City of Amarillo Community Development

808 S Buchanan St • 806-378-3098
Housing Choice Voucher and local homelessness program information. The city website currently says its tenant-based rental assistance and rapid-rehousing programs are not accepting applications; ask about updates and partner referrals.

Amarillo Housing First

806-414-2243
Housing-focused support and referrals for people experiencing homelessness. Ask about current eligibility for a parent and child.

Catholic Charities / Catholic Family Services

806-376-4571
Ask about low-income apartments and other family housing support. Availability and eligibility are not confirmed.

Panhandle Community Services

1309 SW 8th Ave • 806-372-2531
Utility assistance and housing-related support for eligible low-income households; ask about emergency family assistance.

4 Income-restricted apartment leads

These are leads, not confirmed vacancies. Ask about 1- or 2-bedroom units, income limits, deposit assistance, application fees and waiting lists.

Amarillo Gardens

1223 S Roberts St • 806-373-1074
Listed in Amarillo-area housing resource directories. Confirm current property management and program status.

Palo Duro Place

1025 S Virginia St • 806-576-3676
Listed in Amarillo-area housing resource directories. Confirm current property management and program status.

Spring Terrace

2600 S Spring St • 806-374-7522
Listed in Amarillo-area housing resource directories. Confirm current property management and program status.

Win-Lin Village

5700 Wabash St • 806-353-0354
Listed in Amarillo-area housing resource directories. Confirm current property management and program status.

5 Food, clothing, childcare and school stability

Guyon Saunders Resource Center

200 S Tyler St • 806-373-0704
Daytime help for people experiencing homelessness: showers, laundry, hygiene supplies, clothing referrals and help obtaining identification.

High Plains Food Bank

815 Ross St • 806-374-8562
Ask for nearby food pantry and meal distributions.

Amarillo ISD Families in Transition

806-326-1745
For a school-age child experiencing homelessness, ask the McKinney-Vento liaison about enrollment, transportation, school supplies and educational stability. Families staying temporarily with others may also qualify.

Texas benefits and community referrals

Dial 2-1-1
Ask about SNAP, Medicaid/CHIP, TANF, WIC, diapers, childcare subsidies and transportation assistance.

6 Simple action plan

• Today: Call Martha's Home, Salvation Army and Faith City Mission. Ask for a family bed and whether they can remain together.

• If shelters are full: Call 2-1-1 and visit or call The HUB for referrals. Ask to be connected with coordinated homeless-services intake.

• Next business day: Call Buckner Family Place, Amarillo Housing First and City Community Development about longer-term options.

• For the child: Contact the school district's Families in Transition program immediately if the child is school-age.

• Keep available if possible: Photo ID, child's birth certificate, benefit/income records and any eviction or homelessness documentation. Do not delay asking for shelter if documents are missing.

Suggested call script: "I am a mother with a minor child, and we are currently homeless in Amarillo. We need a safe place where we can stay together. Do you have an opening today? If not, can you connect us to emergency family shelter and housing case management?"

Emergency: 911 | Community help: 211 | Domestic violence: 806-374-5433 | Mental health crisis: 988

Sources: City of Amarillo Community Development; Amarillo ISD Families in Transition and Housing Needs; Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs; Transformation Park; Salvation Army; local provider listings. Call ahead to verify addresses, eligibility and availability.